

Routine for explicit vocabulary instruction using the word: SOLAR

1. Teacher: say the word
  2. Students: echo the word
  3. Teacher: show and reads the word.
  4. Students: echo the word
  5. Teacher: give student-friendly definition
  6. Students: echo the definition
  7. Teacher: show picture of word
  8. Teacher: use word in a sentence to demonstrate the meaning of the word
  9. Teacher: ask students positive/negative questions as a way to have them discuss what they know about the word
  10. Teacher: elicit deep processing question/sentence
1. "Solar"
  2. Echo: "Solar"
  3. "Solar"
  4. Echo: "Solar"
  5. SOLAR means something that is connected to the sun
  6. Echo: "something that is connected to the sun"
  7. PICTURE
  8. Sentence: Solar energy is energy that comes from the sun.
  9. Positive/Negative Questions
    - When we talk about energy from the sun, could we say this energy is solar energy? YES
    - Are the rocks that are found on the moon solar rocks? NO
    - Can you provide power to your home with solar energy? YES
    - The boy drank a big glass of orange juice after a soccer game to help him regain his energy. Was this energy solar? NO
    - Scientists tell us the sun is at the center of a system of planets that orbit around it. Is this called the solar system? YES
  10. Seven-Up Sentences
    - Buddy 1: "Solar energy can be used..."
    - Buddy 2: "Solar energy cannot be used..."

Routine for explicit vocabulary instruction using the word: WAIL

1. Teacher: say the word
  2. Students: echo the word
  3. Teacher: show and reads the word.
  4. Students: echo the word
  5. Teacher: give student-friendly definition
  6. Students: echo the definition
  7. Teacher: show picture of word
  8. Teacher: use word in a sentence to demonstrate the meaning of the word
  9. Teacher: ask students positive/negative questions as a way to have them discuss what they know about the word
  10. Teacher: elicit deep processing question/sentence
1. "Wail"
  2. Echo: "Wail"
  3. "Wail"
  4. Echo: "Wail"
  5. WAIL means to cry loudly for a long time
  6. Echo: "To cry loudly for a long time"
  7. PICTURE
  8. Sentence: Everyday the little girl would wail when her mother took her to school.
  9. Positive/Negative Questions
    - If you hit your finger with a hammer, would you wail? YES
    - After seeing the sad movie, a tear rolled down the woman's cheek. Did he wail? NO
    - Does a young child wail when he doesn't get what they want? YES
    - When his best friend moved away, the boy cried quietly into his pillow? Did he wail? NO
    - The baby screamed and cried for 10 minutes after she got her shots. Did she wail? YES
    - I saw tears on the football player's face when his team lost the Super Bowl. Did he wail? NO
    - Did his manager wail? YES
  10. Seven-Up Sentences
    - Buddy 1: "I would wail if....."
    - Buddy 2: "I would never wail ....."

solar

solar

wail

wail