

Word of the Week

definition

to conclude or judge based on evidence and good reasoning characteristics

verb- put clues together, analyze what is not explicitly said or written infer

The detective found a fingerprint in the suspect's room, so the detective infers the suspect is guilty.

example

Giving an opinion based answer with no evidence to support it

non-example